

CURRICULUM VITAE

Susan S. Adler, Psy.D., ABSNP

Licensed Psychologist      School Neuropsychologist
Diplomate, American Board of School Neuropsychology

14 Rye Ridge Plaza
Rye Brook, New York 10573
Telephone: 914 253-4927
Fax: 914 682-7595

EDUCATION:

University of Denver, 1967, B.A. in English
Queens College, 1973, M.S. in Guidance and Counseling
Manhattanville College, 1980, Certificate in Special Education
College of New Rochelle, 1980, Certificate in School Psychology
Yeshiva University, 1986, Psy.D. in Psychology

POST DOCTORAL TRAINING:

Institute for Behavioral Therapy, 1989 – 1990,
Certificate in Cognitive/Behavioral Therapy
Westchester County Psychological Association, 1994 – 1995,
Certificate in Substance Abuse
School Neuropsychology—2004-2005
Board Certification in School Neuropsychology
Collaborative Divorce Certification Program
Mediation Training

PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT:

1988 – Present	Private Practice In my private practice I see children, adolescents, and adults. I am a Cognitive Behavior Therapist, as well as a psychodynamic psychotherapist. I also do marriage counseling, parent guidance, and parent collaboration. In addition, I am a School Neuropsychologist and in that regard perform Neuropsychological Evaluations.
1981 –2001	Psychologist; Pleasantville Schools, Pleasantville, New York
1993 – 2001	Adjunct Field Supervisor – Yeshiva University, Fordham University and Fairfield University
1991 – 1992	Liaison with New York Hospital – Cornell Medical Center and Schools
1991 – 2001	Instructor for State Mandated Child Abuse Identification Course
1990 – 1991	Leadership Training Instructor, Rye City Youth Council
1985 – 1987	Yeshiva University, Bronx, New York Teaching Assistant and Adjunct Lecturer
1988 – 1992	Member - Pleasantville Drug and Alcohol Council
1989 – 1993	Member - Rye Brook Youth Council
1980 – 1981	Child Guidance Center – BOCES, Northern Westchester
1970 – 1972	Queens College, CUNY – Adjunct Lecturer
1968 – 1973	Parsons JHS, Flushing, NY – Teacher

POSITIONS HELD:

1988-1992	Secretary--Pleasantville Drug and Alcohol Council
1989-1993	Secretary--Rye Brook Youth Council
1986-1998	Secretary--Westchester County Psychological Association
2005-Present	International Brain Research Foundation—Board Member

LICENSES HELD:

New York State License in Psychology	Lic. # 009092
--------------------------------------	---------------

CERTIFICATES HELD:

New York State Permanent Certificates (104348703):
School Psychology; Special Education; Guidance; and English
Board of Education, City of New York:
Teacher of English
American Board of School Neuropsychology
Diplomate of the American Board of School Neuropsychology
Collaborative Divorce Certification Program
Mediation Training

PRESENTATIONS:

Professional Development – Presentations and Collaborations:

Numerous presentations to professional, organizations, faculty, parents, and students.
Local Television---Spoke on anorexia
Cable Television—2011—spoke on Bullying

Adler, Susan S. (1987, 1988) Presenter. Good Touches, Bad Touches: Program for Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse. Pleasantville School District.

Adler, Susan S. (1987) Taught Child Abuse Identification Course, Pleasantville School District.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

American Psychological Association
National Association of School Psychologists
Westchester County Psychological Association
New York State Psychological Association
New York Association of School Psychologists